

EMBASSY OF SUDAN-NAIROBI

TSC PRESIDENT RECIEVES PHONE CALL FROM UN SECRETARY-GENERAL

President of the Transitional Sovereignty Council (TSC), General Abdel-Fattah Al-Burhan, has received a phone call from the United Nations (UN) Secretary-General António Guterres, who welcomed the appointment of Dr. Kamil Idris as Prime Minister.

Guterres affirmed the UN's support for this step toward completing the civilian transition.

During the phone call, General Al-Burhan underscored his commitment to completing the formation of a government of independents that would assume full executive powers.

For his part, the UN Secretary-General called for a one-week humanitarian armistice in El-Fashir Locality to support UN efforts and facilitate the delivery of aid to thousands of civilians trapped there.

TSC President agreed to this call, stressing the importance of implementing relevant Security Council resolutions.

SUDAN STRONGLY CONDEMNS ATTACK ON QATAR

The Government of the Republic of Sudan has strongly condemned the attack on the sisterly State of Qatar, considering it a violation of its sovereignty and a clear contravention of international law and the United Nations Charter.

It described the assault constituting an escalation that threatens peace, security, and stability.

The government stressed the need to halt the military operations taking place in the region.

PRIME MINISTER AFFIRMS SUDAN'S SUPPORT FOR QATAR AND IT'S STABILITY

Prime Minister Dr. Kamil Idris has held a phone call with His Highness Sheikh Mohammed bin Abdulrahman Al Thani, Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the sisterly State of Qatar.

During the call, Dr. Idris affirmed Sudan's commitment to the security and stability of the State of Qatar, Underscoring Sudan's support for Qatar, based on a firm position that hightens the consolidation of security and stability in the region.

ARMED FORCES ANNOUNCE THE CRUSHING OF A HUGE ATTACK BY REBEL RSF MILITIA ON BABANUSA

The official spokesman for the armed forces (SAF), Brig. Gen. Nabil Abdullah, has announced the cleansing of the area of Baldago and its surroundings in Bau County in Blue Nile from the remnants of Al-Dagalo and Joseph Tuka's militias.

The official spokesman said, in a statement on Wednesday, "Thanks be to Allah Almighty, our forces in the Fourth Infantry Division - Ad-Damazin have cleansed the area of Baldago and its surroundings in Bau County from the remnants of Al-Dagalo and Joseph Tuka militias.

SUDAN RENEWS CALL ON INTERNATIONAL COMMUNITY TO EXERT PRESSURE ON TERRORIST MILITIA AND ITS REGIONAL SPONSOR

Sudan has renewed its call on the international community, with all its organizations and countries, to exert more pressure on the rebel terrorist militia and its regional sponsor. It also called for the designation of the militia as a terrorist group and the imposition of sanctions on it and its regional sponsor to ensure its compliance with the will of the international community, out of a commitment to maintaining regional peace and security.

PRIME MINISTER ISSUES DECISION APPOINTING MINISTERS OF DEFENCE AND INTERIOR

Transitional Prime Minister Kamil Idris issued a decision on Tuesday appointing Lt. Gen. Hassan Daoud Kabron Kayan as Minister of Defense. The same decision also included the appointment of Lt. Gen. Police Babiker Samra Mustafa Ali as Minister of Interior.

The decision directed the Ministries of Defense and Interior, as well as other relevant authorities, to take measures to implement the decision.

PHONE CALL BETWEEN PRIME MINISTER AND PERSONAL ENVOY OF UN SECRETARY-GENERAL

A phone call was made, on Monday, between Prime Minister Dr. Kamil Idris and Ramtane Lamamra, the Personal Envoy of the UN Secretary-General in Sudan, to discuss several issues.

The Prime Minister affirmed that the priorities of the expected Government of Hope are achieving peace and stability, voluntary return, national recovery, people's livelihoods and security, and preparing the country for free, fair and transparent elections. He stressed that the Government of Hope is a "civilian technocratic government" that will be formed soon, subject to full commitment to the government's program.

Ramtane Lamamra expressed his thanks and appreciation to the Prime Minister and his interest in the peace process and peace, noting that he will brief the Security Council on the political developments and the humanitarian situation in Sudan this week.

SUDAN PARTICIPATES IN THE 4TH UN CONFERENCE ON DEVELOPMENT FINANCING IN SPAIN

TSC PRESIDENT ARRIVES IN SPAIN.

President of the Transitional Sovereignty Council (TSC), General Abdel-Fattah Al-Burhan, arrived in the Spanish city of Seville on Sunday to participate in the Fourth International Conference on Financing for Development.

This came at the invitation of the United Nations (UN) Secretary-General António Guterres and Spanish Prime Minister Pedro Sánchez.

The conference is to be attended by a number of heads of state and government, representatives of regional and international organisations, and economic experts concerned with sustainable development.

The conference is a vital platform for achieving global solidarity and international cooperation in the field of financing sustainable development.

The Sudanese delegation, headed by President of the Transitional Sovereignty Council (TSC), General Abdel-Fattah Al-Burhan, arrived Sunday in Seville, Spain, to participate in the conference.

Acting Undersecretary of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Ambassador Hussein Al-Amin, Al-Fadil stated that the conference would discuss ways to finance development, particularly rural development and agriculture in least developed countries. Regional and international financing institutions, such as the African Development Bank and the World Bank, are participating in the conference. It is expected that the heads of state participating in the conference will seek to urge donors and financing institutions to support rural development and agricultural projects to create job opportunities and increase food production in least developed countries.

KING OF SPAIN RECIEVES TSC PRESIDENT

King Felipe VI of Spain received President of the Transitional Sovereignty Council (TSC), General Abdel-Fattah Al-Burhan, at the Royal Palace in honor of his participation in the Fourth International Conference on Development Financing, hosted by the Spanish city of Seville.

General Al-Burhan's participation in this conference came in response to an invitation from UN Secretary-General António Guterres and the Spanish Prime Minister.

President of the Transitional Sovereignty Council (TSC) General Abdel-Fattah Al-Burhan arrived at the venue of the Fourth Conference for Development Financing in Seville, Spain, where he was received by the Spanish Prime Minister and the UN Secretary-General in the conference hall.

President of the Transitional Sovereignty Council (TSC) General Abdel-Fattah Al-Burhan has arrived at the venue of the Fourth Conference for Development Financing in Seville, Spain, where he was received by the Spanish Prime Minister and the UN Secretary-General in the conference hall.

President of the Transitional Sovereignty Council (TSC) General Abdel-Fattah Al-Burhan has arrived at the venue of the Fourth Conference for Development Financing in Seville, Spain, where he was received by the Spanish Prime Minister and the UN Secretary-General in the conference hall.

President of the Transitional Sovereignty Council (TSC), General Abdel-Fattah Al-Burhan, participated on Monday in the Fourth Financing for Development Conference, hosted by the Spanish city of Seville. This was at the invitation of United Nations Secretary-General António Guterres and the Spanish Prime Minister.

The conference will be attended by King Felipe VI of Spain, a number of heads of state and government, representatives of regional and international organizations, leaderships of civil society organisations concerned with development, and experts and those interested in financing and development issues.

The conference is an opportunity to exchange views and ideas on the need to achieve global solidarity and international cooperation in financing sustainable development.